

Movie Mondays

Join us once a month to watch & discuss a selected film (topics will vary from features to documentaries, English language to foreign films.)

Choose a screening that works with your schedule and stay for a short discussion. Free and open to all. Attendees welcome to bring their own snacks.

Monday, January 22: 2:00 p.m. or 7:00 p.m.

The Young Messiah (2016, Rated PG-13; 1 hour, 51 minutes)

An imagined account of Jesus' childhood years and the Holy Family's return from Egypt to Nazareth. How did Christ and His Church change the ancient perceptions of 'childhood'?

Monday, February 12: 2:00 p.m. or 7:00 p.m.

The Passion of the Christ (2004, Rated R, 2 hours) Jim Caviezel stars in this Oscar-nominated film depicting the last 12 hours of Jesus' life. For authenticity, the dialogue is in Aramaic, Latin, and Hebrew, with English subtitles. The R rating is for sequences of graphic violence leading to Jesus' Crucifixion.

We take a break in March during the Lenten Lecture Series

Monday, April 16 : 2:00 p.m. or 7:00 p.m.

Risen (2016, Rated PG-13; 1 hour, 47 minutes)

Joseph Fiennes stars as a Roman Tribune in Roman-occupied Judea who is tasked with finding the missing body of a Crucified Jew, rumored to have risen from the dead.

Monday, May 21: 7:00 p.m. only (due to Sts. Constantine & Helen feastday)

Pop (The Priest)

(2009, In Russian with English subtitles; no rating available; 2 hours, 10 minutes)

Based on a true story of a Russian Orthodox priest trying to maintain a peaceful life for his parish during the World War II Nazi occupation of Russia.

At what point does civil disobedience become the moral thing to do?

We take a break in June during festival preparations.